Bournville Village Trust

Small resources, big impact: unlocking the potential of the impact created in smaller organisations

Arthur Tsang, Director of Communities

Bournville Village Trust

We were founded by social reformer and Quaker George Cadbury in 1900 and we're proud to be one of the Midlands longest serving independent charitable trusts.

We provide services in central and south Birmingham and Telford, including in Lawley and Lightmoor Village, to over 9,000 households. The work we do includes:

- Managing environmentally sustainable estates, including the Bournville Estate.
- Providing 3,400 social-rented and affordable homes.
- Delivering community-support services that help people thrive and lead successful lives.
- Ploughing surplus from commercial activities back into our neighbourhoods.

"A happy place where I can come and feel part of a community"

"I love volunteering at Selly Manor because it gives me a chance to contribute to my local community. As a university student living in Selly Oak, it is also heritage, to get away from my studies for a while and get to spend some time in lovely Bournville, in such amazing historic buildings. I have been able to meet and talk to so many great people that I likely wouldn't have otherwise. I am passionate about carers, and it is an honour to support a carers, but very important and interesting site."

"A place where I can meet fellow carers, and we can share our worries, concerns and successes. Being new to the area it's somewhere we can make friends"

"Young Leaders training has helped me talk to people I didn't know and from different areas."

"Youth clubs are excellent, with a range if interesting activities and my children look forward to it each week. My daughter does youth forum this has helped her to grow in confidence and feel part of her community. She learns lots at youth sessions such as trying beer goggles and new foods and crafts. The communication from Emma is great and my children love the staff who are very approachable."

"From a shy little girl, Rowena has grown into a confident young lady who wants to come back as a junior volunteer."

"I have had the confidence to complete my CSCS card course and gain this. Staff helped me to revise for my exam".

"I feel better equipped to handle new situation as my confidence in myself has grown."

"I have been able to obtain a new job."

"When my college laptop loan had ended, the Holdings gave me a laptop and I am able to complete my coursework at home in good time. This has helped me to achieve my goals."
